

KU Powwow and Cultural Festival

Saturday, April 1

Lied Center Pavilion

Noon & 5 p.m. Powwow 101-All you need to know about powwows.

Lied Center Auditorium

1:00 pm & 6 p.m. Grand Entry

4:30 p.m. Hinu Alaskan Club Dance

Speakers Series

Lied Center Pavilion

1:30-2:15 p.m. Elizabeth Kronk Warner-Tribal Water Quality

2:30-3:15 p.m. Adrienne Keene-Wild Indians on the Plains: Cultural Appropriation and Stereotypes from Urban Outfitters to Standing Rock

3:30-4:15 p.m. Joshua Miner- The Visual Rhetoric of Indigenous Environmental Stewardship

4:30-5:15 p.m. Jason Hale – Drums

7:00 pm Indigenous Films-Joshua Miner, KU Media Studies Department, will be showing contemporary documentary films about Native American life.

Hands on Workshops

Seymour Gallery-2nd level

1:30-2:30 p.m. About Beading (techniques and examples)

2:30-3:30 p.m. Alaska Native Games

3:30-5:30 p.m. Introduction to Beading – hands-on workshop to get you started on your own beading projects.

Conference Room

3:00-5:00 p.m. Advanced Beading Workshop

Brenda Racehorse

12 total participants. Please sign up. Sheet on the Conference Room door.

Outside

All Day Traditional crafts by Phillip Pursel (Ioway Tribe)

Kids Activities

- 12:30 p.m. Blue River Forest School- Kids will be taken on little wilderness treks around the Lied Center learning about plants, animals, the world around them, and each other with fun games and activities.
- Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)
- Read, Play, and Splash* (Tipi 2)
- Baxoje “People of the Grey Snow” Language Activity (Ioway Tribe) (Tipi 3-painted)
- 1:30 p.m. Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)
- Read, Play, and Splash* (Tipi 2)
- Storytelling by Ron Brave (Tipi 3-painted)
- 2:00 p.m. Blue River Forest School- Kids will be taken on little wilderness treks around the Lied Center learning about plants, animals, the world around them, and each other with fun games and activities.
- Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)
- Storytelling- (Tipi 3-painted)
- 2:30 p.m. Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)
- Read, Play, and Splash* (Tipi 2)
- 3:00 p.m. Blue River Forest School- Kids will be taken on little wilderness treks around the Lied Center learning about plants, animals, the world around them, and each other with fun games and activities.)

Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)

Read, Play, and Splash (Tipi 2)

3:30 p.m. Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)

Baxoje “People of the Grey Snow” Language Activity (Ioway Tribe) (Tipi 3-painted)

Storytelling by Ron Brave

4:00 p.m. Coloring, activities and books about Native Americans (Tipi 1)

Read, Play, and Splash (Tipi 2)