TERRY FATOR
Pure Imagination: Once Upon A Voice

There will be no intermission during this performance.

Legendary Las Vegas headliner Terry Fator has created a new road show to kick off his upcoming tour. Pure Imagination: Once Upon a Voice is a 90-minute spectacular, featuring the incredible impressions, comedy and ventriloquism that has made Terry and his characters a must-see show for fans across the nation.

"Pure Imagination is a totally different concept than my road shows in the past," Fator said. "I found that, throughout my life, my imagination had spawned countless characters, song parodies and comedy skits, and I compiled them all together to give my audience a fun look into my creative psyche."

The show features the classic characters Terry has made famous over the years: Winston the Impersonating Turtle; Country Star Walter T. Airdale; Apollo Theater legend Julius; perpetual slacker and stoner Duggie; Vikki the Cougar; and the world's greatest Elvis impersonator, Maynard Tompkins.

"One idea I had is to add in characters and impressions based on real-life stars people around the world know and love," Fator said. "So, you can look forward to seeing and hearing Willie Nelson, Michael Jackson, Justin Bieber, plus a few surprise 'guests.' "

Simply put, Pure Imagination is pure entertainment for audiences across the country.

Terry Fator rose from humble beginnings in Corsicana, TX, to become one of the most beloved entertainers in the world. After years of performing at county fairs and small venues, Terry achieved his lifelong dream when he won Season 2 of NBC's America's Got Talent, earning the $1 million prize and the title of "Best New Act in America."

That victory launched one of the most successful residencies in Las Vegas history earning numerous awards, including Best Show, Best Strip Entertainer, Best Family Show, Best Impressionist and Best All-Around Performer—headlining his own shows at The Mirage, New York-New York Hotel & Casino and most recently, The STRAT Hotel, Casino & Tower.

A world-class ventriloquist, singer and comedian, Terry amazes audiences with more than 200 celebrity impressions—from Elton John and Garth Brooks to Karen Carpenter and Bruno Mars—alongside his hilarious puppet co-stars like Winston the Impersonating Turtle and Vikki the Cougar.

After more than 3,500 performances and millions of tickets sold over 18 years in Las Vegas, Terry continues to evolve creatively. His new touring production, Pure Imagination: Once Upon a Voice, brings his unique blend of music, comedy and heart to audiences across the U.S. and around the world. Through the Terry Fator Foundation, he also supports causes close to his heart, especially America's veterans. Visit TerryFator.com.
